

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

MONDAY 9TH
JANUARY

Edwinstree behaviour policy says:

"At Edwinstree, we work to support students, staff and the community to own their mistakes and to learn from them..."

Psalm 16, verse 11

"God has a path, and it is a good road to take."

Behaviour system is based around Restorative Justice – learning from what has gone wrong.

BEHAVIOUR SYSTEM

WHAT WE CURRENTLY HAVE

- 1 card = Friday Justice
- 2+ cards = the same consequence

EXTENDED FRIDAY JUSTICE

- Extension to our current behaviour system.
- Trialled with KS3 students in the last academic year.

Starting Monday 16th January

EXTENDED
FRIDAY
JUSTICE

3 cards in a half term (of any colour)

- Call home from HOY / SLT to arrange this consequence.
- Extended Friday Justice is on Fridays until 4pm with HOY/SLT.

* We would expect conversations to take place about every card given.

EXPLANATION

POTENTIAL QUESTIONS

What about our normal Friday Justice?

Still runs as normal, regardless of how many cards you have.

Why are yellow and red cards treated the same?

Reds come with more consequence (Restorative Justice – usually break/lunch, contact home)

What happens if I get two but not three cards in a half term?

At the minute, we will start afresh at the beginning of each half term, rather than carrying cards over.

What if I get two EFJs in a half term?

Likelihood parents are asked in. Reason for cards depending, possible internal suspension, moving to external suspension.

EXTENDED FRIDAY JUSTICE

POTENTIAL QUESTIONS?

Why now?

New year, new start for everyone.

- Monday 16th to give time to explain to students and to forewarn parents.
- Bring the school more in line with Secondary school approaches. This is, in essence, an after school detention that most Secondary schools use as part of their behaviour strategy.
- Y7 – now settled into the new Key Stage. Aware of our expectations.
- Y8 – Freman / future schools beginning to look at behaviours (positive and negative)

EXTENDED
